EVE-OF-FINAL RALLY
Friday, 16th May 2008, 6pm for 6.45pm.

The New Connaught Rooms Great Queen Street London WC2B 5DA
(Two minutes' walk from Holborn Station on the Central Line)

Following last year's return of the FA Cup Final to its spiritual home of Wembley Stadium, the 2007 Eve-Of-Final Rally also returned to London, and what a fantastic evening it turned out to be. This year's event promises to be just as successful, and will be held at the newly renovated New Connaught Rooms, very conveniently located in Central London.

The Rally is held in honour of the Cup Final Referee and his team and gives their fellow referees and peers the opportunity to pay tribute to them on their achievement of being appointed to the "match of the season". Delegates will get a chance to mingle with the officials before formalities commence and at half time when you can offer them your personal congratulations. During the second half of the evening, when the officials have retired to their hotel to get an early night to prepare for their big day, the entertainment will be provided by Bob Wilson, the ex-Arsenal and Scotland goalkeeper, who enjoyed a long and successful career as a sports commentator, and is a highly amusing and entertaining speaker.

Tickets for the Rally are now available, priced at £12.50 each, and you will receive a souvenir programme autographed by the four officials. We ask all ABSs to bring the Rally to the attention of their Membership, and applications can either be made individually or on behalf of your ABS – just complete and return the slip below with a cheque payable to "The RA" for the appropriate amount or a debit authorisation. Demand is expected to be high, so we recommend early application, which will be on a "first come/first served" basis, to avoid disappointment.
